Medical.

Baltimore Lock Hospital.

DR. JOHNSTON,
Physician of this celebrated Institution, has discovered the most certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the World for all
DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE,
Weakness of the Back, or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of the Kidneys, or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Diseases of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices, more fatal to their victims, than the songs of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes, or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.
YOUNG MEN
especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.
MARRIAGE.
Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness, Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency,) Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other disqualification, speedily relieved.
He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidentially rely upon his skill as a physician.
ORGANIC WEAKNESS,
IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF POWER.
Immediately Cured, and Full Vigor Restored.
This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences.—Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny, that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits, than by the prudent? Beside being deprived the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes debilitated, the Mental and Bodily Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.
A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS.
Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury!
Persons Ruined by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders, and their Deadly Poisons, should apply immediately.
DR. JOHNSTON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London. Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that ever were known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.
TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.
Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgences and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.
These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.
MENTALLY—The fearful effects of the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.
Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.
YOUNG MEN
who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from companions or at school, the effects of which are slightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.
What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darken in the view, the mind becomes shadowed to despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.
DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.
When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has fallen a victim to one of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the destructive train of symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings. Is it not better to shun the cause than to suffer the effect? Is it not better to apply to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the destructive train of symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings. Is it not better to shun the cause than to suffer the effect?
To such, therefore, Dr. JOHNSTON pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable secrecy, and from his extensive practice and observations in the great Hospitals of Europe, and the first in this country, viz: Dartmouth, France, Philadelphia and elsewhere, is enabled to offer the most Speedy, Certain and Effectual Remedy in the World for all diseases of Imprudence.
DR. JOHNSTON,
OFFICE, 7 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET,
BALTIMORE, MD.,
left hand side going from Baltimore street, a few doors from the corner. Fail not to observe the name and number.
☞No letters received unless postpaid and containing a stamp to be used on the reply. Persons writing should state age, and send a portion of advertisement describing symptoms.
There are so many Fairy, Designing and Worthless Impostors advertising themselves as Physicians, trifling with and ruining the health of all who unfortunately fall into their power, that Dr. Johnston deems it necessary to say especially to those unacquainted with his reputation, that his Credentials or Diplomas hang in his office.
ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.
The many thousands cured at this establishment, year after year, and the numerous Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston witnessed by the representatives of the press and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

THE reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvelous. The systematic cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system is saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it—complaints apparently hopeless, when once AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has entered into the circulation, have been thoroughly cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or cures.
Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of disease. Often, this unseen and insidious foe undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, which excite a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on a favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or the other of the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be and deadly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of the disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find themselves relieved, and, in many cases, cured, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: Scrofula, Erysipelas, Rose or Erysipelas, Pustules, Ringworm, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, Sore Mouth, Ulcers, Tumors, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, Sore Mouth, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. It also expels concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Uterine affections of the muscular and nervous systems.
Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing those obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each one are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache arising from Foul Stomach, Biliousness, Colic, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poison in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer of the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are languid and exhausted, Dizziness of Sight, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the various symptoms of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

HUMOROUS.

PATIENCE is exemplified in the man who left his wagon while his horse balked, sat on a rock and read the bible till the animal was hungry enough to go home.

"BRIDGET, I wish you would step over and see how old Mrs. Jones is this morning." Bridget returned in a few moments with the information that Mrs. Jones was seventy-two years, ten months and eight days old.

"Julius, was you ever in business?"
"Of course I was."
"What business?"
"A sugar planter."
"When was that, my colored friend?"
"De day I buried dat old sweetheart of mine."

A YOUNG gentleman having called in his physician, said, "Now, sir, I wish no more trifling. My desire is, that you at once strike at the root of my disease." "It shall be done," replied the doctor; and lifting his cane, he smashed the decanter which stood on the table.

MRS. AGASSIZ says that in certain Amazonian tribes, on the day of his marriage, while the wedding festivities are going on, the bridegroom's hands are tied up in a paper bag filled with fire-ants. If he bears this torture smilingly and unmoved he is considered fit for the trials of matrimony.

"WHY, Bill, what's the matter with you? you look down in the mouth."
"Well, Peter, I dare say if you'd went through what I have, you'd look bad too."
"What's the matter!"
"Well, you know Sarah Ewivels, don't you, Peter? I discarded her last night."
"You did! what for?"
"Well, I'll tell you. She said she would'nt marry me, and I'd discard any girl that would treat me in that way."

NOTHING LIKE GRAMMAR.—Nothing like grammar! Better go without a cow than that. There are numberless "professors" who go "tramp, tramp, my boys!" around the country, peddling a weak article, by which, in "twenty days" they guarantee to set a man thoroughly up in the English language. An instance in point comes from Greenville, Alabama, where a "professor had labored with the youth of that people, and taught them to dote on grammar according to 'Morris' system." During one of the lectures the sentence "Mary milks the cow," was given out to be parsed. Each word had been parsed save one, which fell to Bob L——, a sixteen year old, near the foot of the class, who commenced thus:
"Cow is a noun, feminine gender, singular number, third person, and stands for Mary."
"Stands for Mary!" said the excited professor. "How do you make that out?"
"Because," said the noble pupil, "if the cow did'nt stand for Mary, how could Mary milk her?"

WET HIS SHIRT.—A bashful and rather verdant young man from near Vincennes, attended a ball in that place recently, in company with the "idol of his heart." After the dance had progressed for some time, the young man from the rural district saw the one most dear to him sitting alone in one corner of the room, and concluded he would step over and have a spoke that with his lady-love. All well so far, but the bashful fellow was at a loss for something to say; he fidgeted about and was sweating profusely, having just left the dance, and besides the room was quite warm. Finally, taking hold of his wilted collar, he commenced the conversation thus: "It's powerful warm, my lady's wet, ain't yourn?"—The lady wilted.

The Star and Sentinel.

"MOTHER'S FOOL."

"Tis plain enough to see," said a farmer's wife,
"These boys will make their marks in life:
They were never made to handle a hoe,
And at once to college ought to go.
There's Fred, he's little better than a fool,
But John and Henry must go to school.

"Well, really, wife," quoth farmer Brown,
As he sat his mug of cider down,
"Fred does more work in a day for me
Than both his brothers do in three,
Book larnin' will never plant one's corn,
Nor hoe potatoes, sure's you're born,
Nor mend a rod of broken fence—
For my part, give me common sense."

But his wife was bound the roost to rule,
And John and Henry must go to school,
While Fred, of course, was left behind,
Because his mother said he had no mind.

Five years at school the students spent;
Then into business each one went,
John learned to play the flute and fiddle,
And parted his hair, of course in the middle;
While his brother looked rather higher than he,
And hung out a sign, "H. Brown, M. D."

Meanwhile at home their brother Fred
Had taken a notion into his head;
But he quietly trimmed his apple trees,
While somehow, either by hook or crook,
He managed to read full many a book,
Until at last his father said,
He was getting "book larnin'" into his head;
"But for all that," added Farmer Brown,
"He's the smartest boy there is in town."

The war broke out, and Captain Fred
A hundred men in battle led,
And, when the rebel flag came down,
Went marching home as Captain Brown.
But he went to work on the farm again,
And planted corn and sowed his grain,
He shingled the barn and mended the fence,
Till people declared he had common sense.

Now common sense was very rare,
And the State-house needed a portion there:
So the "family dunce" moved into town,
The people called him Governor Brown:
And his brothers, who went to the city school,
Came home to live with "mother's fool."

"GOD WILL PROVIDE."

BY KATHARINE STANLEY.

"Don't cry, Nellie," said a piping little voice. "You know what mamma told us the night she died. 'God will provide,' she said. I ain't a bit hungry; indeed, indeed I ain't."

It was Saturday night—a wild, bitter winter night. The wind rattled at the loose casement, roared down the fireless chimney. The two orphans had eaten nothing all day, and there was not a cent in the house. From earliest dawn, the eldest had been sewing at a bit of piecework for a clothing-store, in hopes to complete it before night; but now, when dusk had come, and the task was still unfinished her brave heart had given way, and letting the waistcoat fall into her lap, she had burst into despairing tears.

Nellie Thorndike and her little, six year-old sister, Annie, were the children of a clergyman, who had worn himself out in the service of his Master, in an obscure country district. His wife had soon followed him to the grave, broken-hearted, leaving the orphan offspring alone and friendless. In the great city to which she had come, in hopes to earn a living by giving lessons in music. For awhile Nellie had fought bravely to keep the wolf from the door. But as her needle was her only resource, the battle had gone steadily against her. First, one comfort had to be given up, and then another; no fire had been kept, though winter had come; very often the sisters had gone supperless to bed. To-day they had eaten nothing. The last crust, the last penny were gone. No wonder Nellie had broken down! Even at seventeen, when hope is still high, there can be such a thing as despair.

But she rallied at her little sister's words. Hastily brushing the tears from her eyes, she took the child in her arms, and kissed her vehemently.

"I know! I know!" she said. "I have been weak and wicked. Yes, darling! God will provide."

"And don't you remember," said Annie, nestling to her sister's heart, "that verse in the Bible, about never seeing the righteous forsaken, or their seed begging bread? Mother used to give it to me to learn by heart."

She was interrupted by a loud, imperative knocking at the door.

"Hark! What was that?" she cried, in a frightened whisper.

Nellie started to her feet, but still held the child. She was pale, and trembled, and had a wild look, as of one hunted to death.

"It is the landlady," she said. "I promised to pay the rent to-night; and I had forgot. But I haven't a penny. What shall we do? She will turn us out into the streets."

"Oh! not to-night, not to-night!" cried Annie, convulsively clutching her sister. "Just listen to the storm."

The danger roused Nellie, as danger always rouses the brave. Her eyes kindled. Her frail form seemed to grow taller.

"She won't dare to do it. She cannot be so cruel," she said. Yet she hardly believ

ARCHBISHOP SPALDING, of Baltimore, doesn't seem to share the feeling of negro-phobyism which so seriously disturbs the Democratic party. On last Sunday he delivered an address in that city, at the laying of a corner stone of a building to be used as a school and asylum for colored orphans, during which he said there was no distinction of color in the Roman Catholic Church, and he rejoiced to see Americans, Germans and Irishmen carrying out, by their action, the true principles of that Church. It is a mooted question, said the Archbishop, whether the colored people of the Roman Catholic faith should have separate churches, or whether they should remain, as now, in the churches in which they enjoy common privileges with all other Catholics. Heretofore they have met at the same communion table, and have participated in the same sacraments and ordinances of that Church on terms of perfect equality. He thought that perhaps in some localities, by reason of their increasing numbers, it may become desirable to gather them into churches of their own. During the course of his remarks he incidentally remarked that when he was a student at college two of his classmates were colored youths and one of them was his particular friend.

THE avowed purpose of Louis Napoleon, in declaring war against Prussia, was to break the growing power of that nation and prevent the possible consolidation of the German States. He expected, by engaging Prussia in war, to foment the jealousies growing out of the absorption of the North German States after the defeat of Austria at Sadowa, and thus not only prevent a union of the South German States but to disrupt and undo the work of 1866. The reverse of all this has taken place. The War, instead of dividing, has consolidated Germany—the South German States, Bavaria, Wertemburg, Baden, and Hesse Damstadt, having, within the past week, signed treaties at Berlin which unite them with the North German Confederation. Thus, in four weeks after Napoleon's declaration of war, we have the Emperor himself a prisoner, his magnificent armies destroyed, Paris besieged by German troops, and victorious Germany more thoroughly united than ever. This will lead, of course, to the election of King William, of Prussia, as Emperor of Germany, and make the latter, so long weakened by internal dissensions and jealousies, the leading Power in Europe.

THE swift demolition of the French armies by the ponderous blows and magnificent strategy of the Prussian soldiery, has no parallel in history and and almost surpasses belief. In four short months the Germans have captured, and now hold as prisoners of war, 4 Marshals, 140 Generals, 10,000 officers and 320,000 rank and file, besides thousands of others slaughtered in battle.—Of this number 3 Marshals, 50 Generals 6,000 officers and 173,000 rank and file, were taken in one haul at the capitulation of Metz. France opened the war with 450,000 trained soldiers, about 1500 pieces of field artillery and some 350 mitrailleures, all of which have been swept away under the irresistable march of the German armies. All this reads like romance, and if it came to us as the story of by-gone days would be discredited. Yet the stubborn fact is but the history of yesterday. The armies now confronting the Germans in the south of France, and resisting the siege of Paris, are new levies, organized since the first crushing blows of Prussia, at Woerth, Sedan and Metz. Whether they will yet be able to turn the tide of disaster, remains to be seen. To us a prolongation of the struggle seems desperate fool-hardiness.

FURTHER political trouble is threatened in Alabama. On Saturday last the two houses of the Legislature met to count the votes for State officers. The election for Lieutenant Governor and Secretary of State is undisputed, Moren and Sanford, the Democratic candidates, being elected by about 4,000 majority. Gov. Smith, however, obtained from the Supreme Court an injunction against the counting of the votes for Governor and State Treasurer. On the announcement of the vote for Lieutenant Governor, Moren at once qualified and ordered the counting of the vote for Governor, notwithstanding the injunction of the Supreme Court, showing a majority of 1,429 for Lindsay, Democrat. The latter then took the oath of office, and thus the State, for a time, will have two Governors. The House, which is Democratic, recognizes Lindsay, and the Senate, which is Republican, recognizes Smith. There was much excitement at Montgomery growing out of these proceedings, but the difficulty will doubtless be adjusted by the Courts.

GENERAL SHERMAN, in his annual report to the War Department, gives the total strength of the regular army at 2,488 officers and 34,870 enlisted men. Under the operation of the act approved July 15, 1870, the number of officers is rapidly decreasing, so that by the 1st of January it will reach the legal standard 2,277. Of enlisted men the present number is made up as follows: ten regiments of cavalry, 9,892; five regiments of artillery, 4,300; twenty-five regiments of infantry, 16,986; total troops of the line, 31,178. In addition to which are five companies of engineer troops, 660; permanent recruiting parties and recruits, 1,629; enlisted men of ordinance, 706; West Point detachment, 261; signal detachment, 82; hospital stewards, 333; ordnance sergeants, 121—3,692; making a grand total of 34,870. By the same act this number must be reduced by the 1st of July, 1871, to 30,000.

MR. WHITE, Speaker of the Senate, has issued his writ for a special election in the 1st Philadelphia Senatorial district, on the 20th of December, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Senator Watt. The district is Republican; but the majority not being very large, and the political complexion of the State Senate depending on the result, both parties will doubtless make special efforts to win. The Republicans of the district owe it to the State to nominate a first class man, and then make sure of his election.

SUMPTER, South Carolina, at the recent election, polled 3,500 votes, and gave a Republican majority of 2,000. Beauregard should at once be sent for to inflict on Sumpter another bombardment.

A SYNOPSIS of Secretary Delano's forth-coming Report of the Internal Revenue Department, has been published. Mr. Delano earnestly opposes any change of the tax on spirits, believing that it would be more to the benefit of speculators than to the treasury of the country. He recommends making the taxes on all descriptions of tobacco uniform, and suggests various modifications in the revenue laws to correct faulty working. The closing paragraph of the report exhibits briefly the contrast between the Administrations of President Johnson and President Grant. In spite of all our reductions of taxation, there has been an actual increase of about fifty millions of gross receipts. The following official table will be read with interest:

Comparative Statement of the Several General Sources of Revenue from September 1, 1867, to February 28, 1869, (Eighteen Months.)

From this statement it will be seen that the gross receipts from all sources of internal revenue for the first eighteen months of the present Administration compared with those of the last eighteen months of the late Administration are increased to the amount of $49,672,061-09, and taking the same sources of revenue, the excess during the same period of comparison in favor of the present Administration amounts to $101,888,-077 13.

THERE has been a good deal written about Hon. Simon Cameron's withdrawal from the Cabinet of President Lincoln, his enemies repeatedly charging that, although he resigned, it was a virtual removal, the resignation being simply in response to a demand by Mr. Lincoln. We have at length what we presume to be the real facts of the case. Some months ago Senator Wilson, in an article in the Atlantic Monthly on the late Secretary Stanton, incidentally stated that Secretary Cameron, desiring to be relieved from the onerous duties of the War Department, designated Mr. Stanton as his successor and that the latter was appointed Secretary of War in accordance with Mr. Cameron's wishes. Judge Black, in a bitter reply to this article, denied the truthfulness of Senator Wilson's statements, and affirmed that not only had Cameron nothing to do with Stanton's appointment, but was himself dismissed from the Cabinet. Judge Chase, who was Secretary of State at the time and cognizant of all the facts, has addressed Judge Black a temperate but decided reply, in which he fully sustains the essential accuracy of Senator Wilson's statements. After referring to Secretary Stanton's early anti-slavery record and consistant opposition to the encroachments of the Slave power, Judge Chase thus disposes of the mooted questions as to Mr. Cameron's relations to the President and his agency in the appointment of Mr. Stanton:

"You are misinformed, also, in respect to the circumstances connected with Mr. Stanton's appointment as Secretary of War in place of General Cameron. I then thought, and still think, I was well acquainted with them. Gen. Cameron had expressed a wish to retire and take the mission to St. Petersburg, some time before he actually withdrew, and I believe that he was the first to suggest to Mr. Lincoln the name of Mr. Stanton. I held, myself, several conversations on the subject of Gen. Cameron's retirement, his appointment to St. Petersburg, and the appointment of Mr. Stanton as his successor; and I called on Mr. Stanton to ascertain if he would accept the post of secretary of war, if tendered. Ultimately, when, as I supposed, the matter was fully understood, Mr. Lincoln addressed a note to Gen. Cameron, tendering the mission to St. Petersburg, and signifying his willingness to accept his resignation. The note was brief and seemed curt. But Mr. Lincoln, on his attention being drawn to the terms, said that he intended to make it everything it should be, and another note was substituted, expressing what he declared to be his real sentiments. This, I believe, as exact a statement as its brevity admits of Gen. Cameron's retirement from Mr. Lincoln's cabinet. He was not removed; he resigned because, as he stated at the time, he preferred the mission to the secretaryship; and he did recommend the appointment of Mr. Stanton as his successor."

THE Democratic leaders are famous on figures in advance of elections. For the last ten years, on the eve of elections, they have had not the least trouble in cyphering out Democratic victories. The trouble, however, has been that the victories didn't come, notwithstanding the old adage that "figures won't lie." A few months ago they were busy figuring up enough gains in the fall elections to give them the control of the next Congress, and they gave the requisite figures, but with the usual result. Nothing daunted, they have already begun cyphering for the next Presidential election, and their table of the expected result is now going the rounds of the Democratic Press. They are moderate this time, and only claim 11 majority in the next Electoral College—154 Democrats to 148 Republicans. To make out these 154 votes, they put in the Democratic column Arkansas 3, Florida 3, Nevada 3, and Missouri 11, all of which have voted Republican this fall. To say nothing of Georgia, which has not yet voted. Indiana, and West Virginia, all of which will vote Republican in 1872—we have only to transfer Arkansas, Florida, Nevada and Missouri to the Republican column in the same table, and the Democratic slate is badly smashed. The figures will then stand—Democratic 134, Republican 163. That figuring won't answer.

AMONG the rumors recently set afloat by Washington correspondents is one to the effect that Prussia desires a foothold in the West Indies, and has asked the assent of the United States to her acquiring a naval station there, either by purchase or conquest, offering by way of compensation to facilitate the acquisition by the American Government of a naval station in the Mediterranean. The report, probably, has no foundation in fact. Another correspondent says that it has been definitely decided that our Government will send no representative to a Congress of the European Powers, in case, as has been intimated, Russia should desire the United States to be represented in such an assembly.

THE suggestion of Mr. Coleman's name for State Treasurer, seems to be accepted by the Republican press of the State with much favor, as promising a chance for escaping the difficulties now surrounding the choice of a successor to Gen. Irwin. It looks, however, as if Mr. Mackey were determined to force his claims and reopen the personal quarrels growing out of his defeat last winter—and this in the face of the fact that his nomination by the Republican caucus may endanger the integrity of the party. Mr. Mackey would doubtless make an efficient officer, and his friends have a right to feel sore over his defeat by a combination of bolting Republicans and Democrats in the last Legislature. And in this respect he may have claims to Republican support next winter. But these claims are subordinate to the good of the Republican party. We hold that no man has a right to press his claims to official position, when by so doing the success of the party is jeopardized. It is asserted in various quarters that there are enough members of the Legislature hostile to Mr. Mackey to defeat his election, even if nominated in caucus, and hold themselves at liberty to vote against him. This may be all wrong; but if the facts be so, the only way to remedy it is to take up a new man, entirely free from the control of rival cliques, and who can consolidate the Republican vote of both Houses. We don't care who that man is, whether Mr. Coleman or some one else. We hope the Republican caucus will entertain no nomination, that does not promise union and harmony. It is time the Republican party were done with internal dissensions, and address itself to the work of marshalling its adherents in solid column, for the next grand political struggle.

ON Saturday New Castle, Delaware, was again the scene of one of those public floggings which disgrace it three or four times every year. One man was placed in the pillory for an hour, with a wooden collar about his neck, and subjected to the jibes and insults of the crowd of men and children; and then he and two others were stripped beneath the pillory and flogged by the Sheriff.—It is gratifying to know that this official, being a novice, shrank from the performance of his disgusting duty, and was only compelled to lash his victims savagely by the remonstrances uttered by the crowd against his too merciful use of the cat-o-nine-tails. The whipping post and pillory, twin relicts of barbarism, are closely hugged by the Democracy of Delaware, who cling the more closely to them now that their other idol Human Slavery, has been dethroned by the national will. It was hoped that the Republicans would carry the State this fall, and inaugurated a reform that should sweep away the whipping post, establish common schools and secure a new era of progress. But Bayard and Saulsbury, who own and rule the State, said no. Hence Delaware continues the paradise of Old-Hunker Democracy. "Nasby" will be taking up his abode there.

BEN. BUTLER is on the war path again. Last week he made a speech in Boston, wherein he holds it to be the duty of the Government at once to call Great Britain to account on the Alabama claims, and on refusal to pay full damages, declare war, seize Canada and smash up the British dominions. He says war at all times is popular with the masses, and maintains that the adoption of his programme would popularise the administration and enable Grant to walk over the course in the next Presidential struggle. Gen. Butler is always strong, but often eratic, and this latest kink of his will be set down to the credit of his eratic temperament, receiving endorsement in no quarter.

SENATOR CARL SCHURZ, of Missouri, says he has no intention of leaving the Republican party, that the contest in Missouri was purely a struggle for reform inside of the Republican organization, and not in the interests of its opponents. He holds that the Republican is the party of reform, and that reform can be accomplished inside of it much more effectually than outside.

OIL IN PENNSYLVANIA.—It may be interesting to many who invested in oil stock and oil territory to know of a farm recently developed in the heart of the oil region of Pennsylvania which has, during the past five months yielding such large quantities of oil as to almost revive in producers and operators an excitement like that of 1863-64. This farm is owned by a Mr. James McCray, and is situated on the top of a hill, in the town of Petroleum Centre. During the great oil excitement Mr. McCray diligently cultivated his farm, in blissful ignorance of the streams of wealth lying beneath the turf, from out of which grew the splendid crops of hay and oats. Last April, however, a well was sunk on the farm which yielded 400 barrels per day. Other wells were sunk with nearly equal success, giving to the fortunate owner an income which is now $7,000 a day—a revenue for a prince—which must, if it continues a year longer or more, make him one of the wealthiest capitalists in Pennsylvania.

HORRIBLE SUICIDES.—Two terrible suicides occurred on Saturday: one at Marion, on the New Jersey Railroad, and one at the western entrance of Bergen Tunnel, on the Morris and Essex Railroad. The first was that of a laboring man, who threw himself upon the track, near the American Watch Company's Manufactory, immediately in front of the 11.35 train from this city, and was run over and his head cut off. The engineer saw his movement, but was too late to prevent the catastrophe. The other case was that of a well dressed man who, about half-past twelve at noon, walked out on the masonry over the entrance of the Bergen Tunnel at West End, and as a train approached he leaped down on the track, and the entire train passed over him. The body was so badly mutilated and torn as to defy recognition. Both were unknown.—Newark Advertiser.

HOMICIDE IN BEDFORD COUNTY.—Whilst Michael Gordon, who lives on the Bedford and Somerset turnpike, at Dry Ridge, Juniata township, Bedford county, was at breakfast on Sunday morning, the 20th ult., his wife assaulted him with an axe and struck him three terrible blows on the head, inflicting horrible wounds. One blow was given on the forehead, another immediately above the right ear which broke in the skull and made an orifice from which the brain oozed out, and the third above the left ear. Mr. Gordon lay in an insensible condition until Tuesday of last week when he died. It seems that the husband and wife have not lived on friendly terms for some years, and on this Sunday morning had a sharp war of words which gave rise to the attack on the part of the wife which has terminated so disastrously.

Under the consolidation and reduction of the force of the internal revenue bureau, the assistant assessors have suffered the most. In the last sixty days 419 have been discharged, and before the 1st of January 900 more will meet the same fate. This reduction alone reduces the expenses $3,-000 per day.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE Democrats will have a majority of two in the New York Assembly.

THANKSGIVING Day is observed by the Southern Congress as "Monday Christmas."

THEY had fine sleighing in Maine Thanksgiving Day.

ALBANY has a brass band composed of twelve young ladies, whose uniform is in zouave style.

Miss Susan Rickett, aged 18 years, died at Springfield, Ohio, the other day, from the effects of "tight lacing."

John Mallory was choked to death while eating breakfast in East Cambridge on Sunday.

Charles J. Faulkner is a prominent candidate for the United States Senate in West Virginia. He is a Democrat but one of the ablest men of his party.

IN the late election for Governor of Massachusetts Governor Claflin received 79,549 votes, John Quincy Adams 48,536, and Wendell Phillips 21,946 votes.

The Republicans of Nevada elect a Secretary of State, Controller, Surveyor General, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and State Mineralogist.

THE Commissioner of Agriculture, in his recent report, expresses gratification at being able to represent the country generally as being productive and prosperous to a high degree.

MINISTER Roberts of Spain was married last evening in New York to Miss Augela Terry at St. Stephen's Catholic Church, in the presence of a large and distinguished audience.

S. B. VANCE was elected United States Senator from North Carolina to fill the seat which will be vacated by the retirement of Hon. J. C. Abbott on the fourth of March ensuing. This is a Democratic gain.

THE next Legislature of Florida will have a Republican majority on joint ballot of four, the Senate standing twelve Republicans to twelve Democrats, and the House twenty-eight Republicans to twenty-four Democrats.

A Washington telegram says: It is not probable that any effort will be made to repeal the income tax at the next session, as the secretary of the treasury and the commissioner of internal revenue are in favor of its continuance.

The pope has dismissed Italy into ecclesiastical outlawry, and the outlawed have seized and suppressed the journals which published the bull of excommunication. Just what is next to happen does not appear.

A Washington despatch says that the work of consolidating the internal revenue districts throughout the country has thus far resulted in dispensing with over four hundred Assistant Assessors, and it is thought that at least two hundred more will be dismissed by the close of the year.

In view of the apportionment of the Congressional districts of the several States on the basis of the new census, it is gratifying to note that Republicans have carried the Legislatures of at least twenty-seven States, and that they are strong enough in several of the other States to secure a fair distribution of the representation.

The North German Consul General at New York, in reporting to Berlin the shipment of arms and war material from the United States to France, requested instructions to guide his action in the matter. In reply he was directed not to concern himself regarding it, as there was no law among nations to prevent such shipment.

THE Parisians have always been noted for the peculiarity of their diets. It was in that city that the custom of eating horse flesh, now gradualy extending over the Continent, had its origin. If the latest accounts from the beleagured city are to be credited, there is a probability that the Parisians will soon become as fond of rats, dogs, and cats, the luxuries of China, as they are already of horse flesh.

GERMAN SOLDIERS IN FRANCE.—The German soldiers now in France and fit for active service, it is estimated, number 690,000, and the horses belonging to the German army amount to 160,000. The daily rations of these troops require 350,-000 loaves of bread, 185 oxen, 40,000 pounds of bacon, 54,000 pounds of rice, 160,000 quarts of brandy, 40,000 pounds of coffee, 6,800,000 pounds of hay, and large quantities of grain and straw.

A REVEREND gentleman was addressing a Sabbath School concert at Boston Highlands last Sunday night, and was trying to enforce the doctrine that the hearts of the little ones were sinful, and needed to be given to Christ. Taking out his watch and holding it up he said: "Now, here is my watch; suppose it don't keep good time; now it goes too fast, and now too slow; what shall I do with it?" "Sell it," shouted out a flaxen-headed youngster.

ARKANSAS, according to the latest accounts, has done very well. While Logan H. Roots has been defeated in the 1st district for Congress by about 2,000 majority, we have elected O. P. Snyder in place of Rogers, Dem., in the 2nd district, by about 4,000 majority, and re-elected Thomas Boles in the 3d. The new Legislature is about as strongly Republican as the present one.

ARTIFICIAL LIMBS.—Since the first of July last upward of 8,000 maimed soldiers have applied for the benefits of the act of Congress making provision for artificial limbs or for money commutation; 5,000 of these applications have already been acted on at the Surgeon General's office. The soldiers can either procure an artificial leg or an arm by order of the office, or instead, seventy-five dollars for a leg or fifty dollars for an arm, many individuals preferring to select and buy their own artificial limbs.

Secretary Boutwell, in an address delivered in Washington on Monday evening, said that there is no security for republicans institutions, or liberty of the people under any form of Government, except in their general intelligence. Mr. Boutwell argues that no complete remedy can be found for poverty, but unquestionably the nearest approach to it is in a system of public instruction supported by universal taxation, and supported also by public sentiment which recognizes such a system as the only means for the education of the people, and their preservation from poverty and vice.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—On Sunday afternoon Rev. Prof. D. Eberly, Principal of Cottage Hill College, committed an assault and battery on the person of Gates J. Weiser, Jr., of this place, who had been carrying on flirtations with some of the young ladies of the school, near the enclosure on the banks of the Codorus. The injuries were of a painful character, which were inflicted with a cane. Suit was brought when a warrant was issued for the arrest of Prof. Eberly the same evening, after services in the 2nd Reformed Church where he had occupied the pulpit. A hearing was given at the office of H. C. McIntyre, Justice of the Peace, and bail entered for his appearance at Court, Prof. Eberly has been annoyed by these boyish flirtations with the scholars of his college by young beaux from town, which finally resulted as above.—York True Democrat.

Summary of War News

SURRENDER OF THIONVILLE

THE GERMANS AGAIN ADVANCING SOUTH

REPORTED HEAVY FIGHTING

THE RUSSIAN IMBROGLIO

DEFEAT OF GEN. PALLIDINES

SATURDAY, Nov. 26.—The French fortress of Thionville, north of Metz, capitulated on Thursday, after a terrific bombardment. A large portion of the town was burned.

The balloon mails from Paris continue, occasionally falling within the Prussian lines. The news of the condition of things inside the city is very conflicting, French sources representing the city to be well supplied, while German sources represent it in a starving condition.

The German armies seem to be concentrating around Paris and in the valley of the Loire, looking toward an attack on Gen. Paladines' army, which recently drove back the Prussians under Gen. Von der Taun. According to the London Times, there are 200,000 Germans forcing Paladines' lines.

The press of St. Petersburg has been officially warned against supporting France, or unfavorably criticising Germany, the interest of Russia now being identified with the latter.

MONDAY, Nov. 28.—On Saturday morning the army of the Duke of Mecklenburg was in motion southwestwardly from Dreux, and its advance had reached Mamers and Connere, from twenty-five to thirty miles distant from the left of the French forces under command of Keratry, who occupied Le Mans and an intrenched camp at Coulie, fifteen miles northeast of Le Mans. These positions are in the valley of the Sarthe river, over one hundred miles southwest of Paris, and eighty miles west-northwest of Orleans. At the same time the Germans made an attack on the right of the French lines, between Artenay and the Cramien Forest, fifteen miles north and east of Orleans. The attacking force was composed of the army of Von der Taun, recently defeated at Orleans, and the French were under General D'aurelles Paladines. There appears to have been fighting all along the lines on Friday and Saturday, which the Moniteur says has so far been favorable to the French. A great battle is believed to be imminent.

In the north and northeast of France the French repulsed the Germans in a minor engagement on Saturday near Amiens, and the besiegers vigorously bombarded Montmedy, near the Luxembourg frontier.

The English Cabinet is divided on the Russiau question, Earl Granville leading the war party, while John Bright and Gladstone are said to be for peaceful solution. There have been several sessions of the Cabinet, with protracted discussions, without reaching any conclusion. It is rumored that the Queen had been notified of the Cabinet difficulties, and will meet the members in special council on Tuesday.

Gortchakoff's second note to Lord Granville maintained the former position of Russia, and refuses to withdraw the circular announcing an abrogation of the treaty of Paris. A London despatch says that Prussia has offered to mediate between Russia and England.

TUESDAY, Nov. 29.—The despatches as to the fighting on Saturday and Sunday, in the valley of the Loire, are confused and conflicting, probably because of the great extent of the lines. All along the front of the opposing armies north of the Loire and south of Paris, extending from Montargis on the east to Dreux on the west, a distance of one hundred miles, there seems to have been a contest between the armies of Prince Frederick Charles and General De Palladines. The first despatches from Tours state that in the general engagement the French were victorious at every point, and that the Germans were routed and retreating. A subsequent despatch from London says that on Sunday the Tenth Prussian and Twentieth French Corps fought a battle a few miles north of Orleans, in which the French were defeated and driven from their entrenchments. In this battle a French General was taken prisoner by the enemy. In the north of France a battle occurred near Amiens, eighty miles north of Paris, which despatches from Tours concede to be a German victory. Amiens was occupied by the Germans. In the southeast of France Garibaldi's army was attacked on Saturday on the eastern side of the Vosges Mountains a short distance from Dijon, and badly whipped.

There are rumors of the discovery of a dangerous conspiracy to assassinate King William, but particulars are withheld.

THE RUSSIAN QUESTION TO BE SETTLED BY CONFERENCE.

London despatches say it has been agreed that the demands of Russia shall be referred to a Conference of the Powers interested in the Treaty of 1856, England, France, Turkey, Austria, Italy and Russia being the contracting parties to that document. Ministers representing these Governments will meet in London in January next, and by this arrangement war, for the present at least, seems to be averted.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 30.—A telegram from King Willam to Queen Augusta confirms the previous report of a victory south of Amiens, achieved by General Manteuffel over the French army of the North on Monday. The French lost one thousand killed and wounded and seven hundred prisoners. Despatches received in London say that there are seventy thousand Prussians at Amiens, and that on on Monday there was some further fighting at Villers, ten miles to the westward, in which the Gardes Mobile were at first victorious, but retreated when the Prussian reinforcements came up.

As late as Monday evening there had been no general engagement on the Loire, but throughout that day there was sharp skirmishing between Pithiviers and Montargis, the French being generally the victors. De Palladines' army is still entrenched on the line of the Paris and Orleans Railway, between Orleans and Artenay, waiting for the proper time to assume the offensive. The efforts made by the Prussians to turn its flank have so far failed. A despatch from King William's Headquarters at Versailles says that the French on Monday attacked the Prussian forces at Beaume, twenty-five miles northeast of Orleans, and were defeated. The Prussians followed up the defeat of the French in the Vosges, and inflicted on the retreating army of Garibaldi further loss.

The Paris journals testify to the pacific disposition of the people, who, they say, denounce the obstinacy of the Tours Government in prolonging the war.

It is reported from Berlin that the French refuse to allow a Russian envoy to leave the city of Paris because is is feared he will expose the condition of affairs inside the city.

The London Telegraph states that Russia has decided to withdraw her demands and submit the treaty to the conference of the great powers which is to assemble at London. This course was recommended by Prussia, and has been agreed to by England. It is reported at Vienna that Russia demands early action on the part of the other nations.

LATER—DEFEAT OF THE FRENCH.

THURSDAY, Dec. 1.—The military situation is more clearly explained in to-day's despatches. On Monday Gen. Pallidines endeavored to force the German lines at Beaume, while Trochu made a formidable sortie from Paris. After a hard struggle Pallidines was badly beaten, and driven back, leaving 1000 dead on the field, the Germans in turn following up the retreating forces. Prince Frederick Charles reports the complete defeat of the French army of the Loire. Gen. Pallidines is reported wounded.

King William telegraphs the repulse of the sortie from Paris, with heavy losses to the French.

There were rumors in London of the surrender of Paris and the army of the Loire, but not authentic. All accounts represent the condition of the French as desperate, German strategy and prowess having again asserted their superiority. The end cannot be far off.

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

CUMBERLAND.—Sheriff Foreman has appointed B. K. Goodyear, of Shippensburg, deputy.—Wm. Fenstamacher, of Shippensburg, was thrown from his wagon last week, by the horse taking fright, and dangerously injured, being found insensible.

FRANKLIN.—A German, named Frederick Henry Weisthoff, a travelling tinker of Baltimore, was killed on the Cumberland Valley Railroad, three miles from Chambersburg, on Saturday.

YORK.—On the night of the 25th inst., some unknown villain stole a horse from C. Collins, in Hopewell township. Passing to the barn of William Johnson, on the Shrewsberry road, he took out one of the horses and substituting Collins's horse and then fired the barn, which was burned, with 9 head of cattle, 3 horses and a large amount of grain and farming implements.—The President has appointed Hon. J. M. McKinney, of Washington, but formally of York, Judge of the U. S. Circuit Court of Florida.—A son of Charles Beard, Hanover, aged 12 years, last week broke an arm by falling from the roof of a barn.—On the 21st inst., the engine house at Boyer's Ore Band, in Heidleberg township, about 5 miles from Hanover, was destroyed by fire. It appears that the engineer in kindling the fire under the boiler, very incautiously threw some powder in to hasten the fire, which flaming up, ignited a can of powder standing close by, causing a terrific explosion and setting fire to the building, which was totally destroyed. Rev. B. Villager, of Philadelphia, will deliver a lecture in St. Joseph's Church, Hanover, on Papal Infallibility, on Tuesday evening, the 13th inst.

WHO that has seen a dangerous disease arrested by an able physician or a good medicine but values both? Be it your family physician to whom you owe so many escapes from aches and ails, or Dr. Ayer's inimitable remedies:—his Sarsaparilla that renewed your vitality, or Cherry Pectoral that cured a painful cough, or his Ague Cure that expelled the freezing agues and burning fevers from your blood. THE BREVITY OF LIFE.

"'Tis not for man to trifle, life is brief.
Our age is but the falling of a leaf.
We have no time to sport away the hours,
All must be earnest in a world like ours.
Not many lives, but one have we,
How sacred should that one be."

And still how many fritter away their lives, unable to fill any useful purpose, because some lingering disease unfits them for it, and they neglect or refuse to use the remedies within their reach. God in his wonderful arrangement of nature has provided an antidote for all the ills that human flesh is heir to, and by the aid of science the medicinal virtues of certain herbs, roots and barks have been combined and the result is known all over the civilized world as HOSTETTER'S HERB BITTERS. It thoroughly purifies the blood, invigorates the nervous fibres, elevates the standard of all the vital forces, and sustains a most healthful tone of the entire human organization. Sold by all druggists and dealers. DR. N. B. Hartman & Co., Proprietors, Lancaster, Pa.

Friday Morning, Dec. 2, 1870.

LOCAL ITEMS.

POLICE.—The Town Council have appointed Micheal Crilly and William J. Tate special night Police for the borough.

LARGE HOGS.—Lieut. James Hersh, of New Oxford, slaughtered two hogs, one day last week, of the Chester Whites, sixteen months old, weighing 847½ pounds.

GAS.—Arrangements are being made to introduce gas into the Catholic Church in this place, the work being now in progress.

ELECTED.—Wm. Taughinbaugh, Esq., formerly Sheriff of Adams county, was elected a member of the Indiana Legislature, at the October election, for Blackford and Jay counties.

RASPBERRIES.—We learn that J. S. Gitt, Esq., of New Oxford, two weeks ago, took from the stalks in his garden ripe raspberries of the second gathering equally as good and delicious as the first.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Christian Weisensael, shoemaker, of Conoyago township, died suddenly on the 18th ult. He was at work until 11 o'clock the preceding night, and retired in usual health. In the morning his daughter hearing a noise in his room, entered it and found him dying.

FOUNTAIN.—Mr. John Rupp has further improved his fine cottage residence on South Baltimore Street, by putting a fountain in the yard, with a basin about 12 feet in diameter, the jet of water being thrown up through a central figure. It is his purpose to introduce fancy fish into the basin.

SCHOOL REPORT.—We are indebted to Mr. J. H. Wert, County Superintendent, for an advance copy of his annual report. It was our purpose to make some extracts this week; but on glancing over it we find the entire document more than usually interesting, and have concluded to give it in full in our next issue.

SALES.—Elias Mayer has sold his farm in Butler township, 132 acres, to Henry Speck, for $6,000—Mr. Mayer taking in exchange the property of Henry Speck in Hamilton townslip, 7 acres, in part payment.

P. D. W. Hankey, assignee of Daniel Leer, sold on Monday last a farm of 100 acres, in Cumberland township to Jacob Smith of same township, for $1550.

INTERESTING TO LANDLORDS.—As this is the time of year when landlords are thinking of sending notices to their tenants, it will be well for them to remember that Judge Pearson, of Harrisburg, has recently decided that a landlord's notice to a tenant for possession of property is not legal if dated on the 1st of January. It must be dated no later than the 31st of December.

MAIL ROUTE.—The Post-office Department has given to the Soutlh Mountain Iron Company, (F.&C. Ames Superintendent) the contract for a daily mail from Carlisle to Mountain Creek at $462.75 per annum. The service on Route No. 2,201 from Carlisle to York Springs, (E. Johns, contractor,) will hereafter be from Mountain Creek to York Springs, $180 per annum being deducted from the contractor's pay, by reason of the route being shortened 5½ miles.

THANKSGIVING.—Thanksgiving Day was observed throughout the country to a larger extent than usual. The City papers and our exchanges generally are more or less given up to reports of sermons, &c., showing that the good old New England festival is rapidly becoming a national institution. In Gettysburg, religous services were held in Christ Church, Rev. Mr. Breidenbaugh and Rev. Dr. Brown delivering pertinent addresses. The pulpit was occupied by Pastors of the various churches of the town, most of them participating in the services.

CHANGE IN SCHEDULE.—There has recently been a general change in the schedules of the leading railroads. On the Northern Central, the train which left Harrisburg at 8.30 A. M., has been withdrawn. Passengers from Harrisburg and beyond, desiring to reach Gettysburg at noon must leave in the 5 A. M., train; otherwise they can only reach Gettysburg in the evening train. On the Gettysburg Road, the first train will hereafter leave at 8.50 A. M., returning at 12.45 P. M. The second train leaves at 1.45 P. M., returning at 5.30 P. M.

IMPROVEMENT.—Several years ago, under an Act of Assembly, commissioners were appointed to vacate a portion of the State road from a point beyond Stevens Run to its intersection with Carlisle street whereby Carlisle was straightened and extended. By an arrangement between Prof. Ehrehart and the Town Council, a further part of said State road lying between Union street and Stevens Run, is to be vacated. Prof. Ehrehart, who owns the land on both sides of the part to be vacated, proposes to give the right of way over his land for an extension of Water street to Stratton, and for an alley from Water to Union street, between his property and lots of Henry Barbeham and Charles Kappes.

RAILROAD FROM YORK TO GETTYSBURG.—The building of a railroad from York to Gettysburg direct is beginning to be agitated with decided earnestness. It is said that parties abroad will furnish a large proportion of the means—probably two-thirds—if the people of York and Gettysburg and along the route will subscribe the balance—that is, Gettysburg to take $25,000 of the stock, York from $50,000 to $75,000, and between the two points about the same as the latter—the estimated cost of the road being $450,000. A project of so much importance cannot but command general attention, and it is not doubted that the people will give it the most prompt and liberal aid in their power.—York True Democrat.

INSTALLATION.—The officers of "Geary Lodge No. 302, I. O. G. T.," at York Springs, were installed by Deputy H. C. Peters, on the evening of the 15th inst., viz:—W. C. T., C. A. Peacock; W. V. T., Miss E. S. Sadler; W. T., A. K. Myers; W. F. S., M. J. Myers; W. S., R. W. Sadler; W. A. S., E. C. Johns; R. H. S., E. L. Wolford; L. H. S., C. J. Myers; I. G., C. F. Myers; W. M., Eli Grist; W. O. S., C. H. Peters; D. M., Sue C. Worley.

Rev. Mr. Davidson delivered a lecture on temperance on the evening of the 31st inst., in Odd Fellows Hall, in the presence of a large audience. The Good Templars of York Springs are live workers, and are actively pushing the war against intemperance.

THE BEST STOVE now in market, for beauty, economy, and comfort, is admitted all around to be the MORNING GLORY. It defies all competition, and that is the judgment of all who have used it. It is just the thing for Offices, Stores, and Parlors Chambers. Call at C. H. Boehler's Ware Room, opposite the Passenger Depot, and examine for yourselves. tf

COURT DOINGS.—There is an unusually large number of criminal cases to be disposed of, including the New Oxford homicide case. We annex a list of the cases disposed of up to the time of going to press:

Com. vs. John Shanabrook.—Indictment for Fornication and Bastardy on information of Catharine Jacoby. Verdict guilty, with the usual sentence.

Com. vs. Dr. Daniel L. Baker.—Adultery, Fornication and Bastardy, on information of Elvira S. Snyder. Verdict, guilty. Defendant's counsel filed a motion in arrest of judgment and for a new trial.

Com. vs. James Dunn.—Larceny of a lady's cloth jacket, taken from the residence of John S. Crawford, Gettysburg. Defendant plead guilty, and was sentenced to five months imprisonment in the County Jail.

Com. vs. Shade Spealman.—Larceny of a turkey, property of John Shultz. Bill ignored, county paying costs.

Com. vs. Henry Johnson and Mary Johnson.—Assault and Battery on information Franklin Lincoln. Verdict guilty. Henry Johnson sentenced to pay a fine of $10, and Mary Johnson to undergo five months imprisonment in County Jail.

Com. vs. Henry Johnson and Mary Johnson.—Larceny of tinware, the property of Springs Hotel Company. Bill ignored.

Com. vs. Samuel Sheets.—There were three indictments against defendant for larceny of property of Christian Shifferer at various times. All the bills were ignored, county paying costs, being a felony.

Com. vs. Dick Slonaker, Wm. Hughes, et alias.—The defendants are boys of about 12 years, and were charged with rape on information of Jennette Shefferer. Bill ignored, county paying costs.

Com. vs. James McElwee. Surety of the Peace, on complaint of his wife. After hearing, the Court dismissed the complaint, but ordered the defendant to pay the costs.

Com. vs. William Wills.—Larceny of bark, the property of estate of Thaddeus Stevens. Bill ignored, county paying costs.

Com. vs. William Colton.—Indictment for murder and manslaughter, in the killing of John Bond. This is the New Oxford homicide case, the particulars of which were given in our columns when it occurred. The Grand Jury ignored the count for murder, and the defendant will be tried for manslaughter. The case was called on Thursday morning, and a good deal of time spent in getting a jury.—Now on trial.

NEWSPAPER SUBSCRIBERS.—The London Newspaper Press contains the following classification of newspaper subscribers which is somewhat vaguely credited to "an American paper:"

First comes the Uprights.—These are men who take newspapers, pay for them, and read them. Observe the order in which we are done: The pay comes first—the reading next. These men consider they get the worth of their money in the bargain. It seems as fair and just to them that the newspaper should be paid for as a barrel of sugar or a new coat. They never entertain any other opinion. When the year runs out, or a bill is before, they are on hand with the pay. There is no more difficulty with them in remembering this period, than Sunday or the first of January. If one of them wishes to stop his paper, he either calls or writes a letter by his postmaster, in due season, like a man. This class is dear to the heart of the editor. Their image is embalmed in his warm affections. May they live a thousand years, and see their sons' sons to the fourth generation.

The second class now in mind is the Do Wells.—This is nearly related to the other—so near that it is hard to tell where one begins and the other ends. These men always pay in advance in the beginning, and intend to do so continually. But memory fails a little, or some mishap intervenes, and the time runs by—sometimes a little—sometimes for quite a period. But their recollection, though nodding occasionally never gets sound asleep. It pronounces the word in due time—"The printer is not paid;" and forthwith their will to do well kindles into activity. Now comes the paying up—"Meant to do so before. Don't mean to let such things pass by." A publisher can live with such men. They have a warm place in their memory—only a little back of the uprights. If such a man dies in arrears, his wife or son remembers that he may not have paid up for his newspaper, and forthwith institutes inquiries.—They remember that part of the benefit was theirs, and, estate or no estate, see that the printer's bills are not among father's unsettled accounts.

Next come the Easy Doers—These men believe in newspapers. They have fully settled in their own minds that a newspaper is a good thing. They take them, too. Sometimes at the first they pay up for the first year, at any rate they mean to, pretty soon. they have done so, they sit down with the comforting conviction that their newspaper is now settled for; and this idea having got into their heads, refuse obstinately to be dislodged, but keeps its hold from year to year; a truth once—now an illusion, gray and rheumatic with years. The editor, marking the elongated and elongating space in the accounts current of their dollars, begins to ask if they are dead or have gone to California. Now he begins to poke bills at them. They suddenly start up to the reality that they are in arrears; and, like men, as they are at the bottom, pay up. They never dispute his bills—they know books tell better stories than moss covered memories. If the publishar has faith enough, or a long purse, and can live like a hibernating bear, he may survive this class. But if he is mortal only, woe be to him.

The next class is that of the

Down Hillers—Here we begin to slide over to the other side. The picture suddenly gets sombre. We shall dispatch the Down Hillers suddenly. One of these may take a paper because wife wants one, or the children are zealous to read it, or a neighbor persuades him. When it begins to come, he dismisses all thoughts about it further. If the editor sends a man directly to him at the end of two or three years, he may get some pay for his paper, but with growls and surly looks.—He never pays any debt if he can get rid of it, and a newspaper least of all. Still, he hates lawsuits, and constables, and all that. A dun has the same effect on him that a bullet has on a hippopotamus—glancing from his hide, or sinking into the blubber harmless. He is always sliding down hill, and soon merges into another class, that of

The Nix Cum Rouse.—No matter how this man began his subscription, he never pays for it—not he. "He don't like that sort of paper. It don't give no news. He never did like it. He didn't want it in the first place, and told the postmaster so. He sent back one more than a year ago—besides, he never began to take it till a long time after it came, and he hadn't only two or three of them, at any rate, and those he hadn't read." Wipe him off.

Here comes the Scapegrace—It is enough to say of him that he never fails to have a newspaper—two or three of them. When he thinks they have come about long enough for the publisher to want pay, he sends back with "stop it." Or he takes up his quarters and leaves for parts unknown. He does not want to pay, and he don't mean to.—Get it if you can.

Reader, in which of the above classes are you found?

DEATH OF PROF. EHREHART.—Our obituary notices to-day record the death of Rev. C. J. Ehrehart, late Principal of the Preparatory Department of Pennsylvania College. He graduated at Pa. College in the class of 1850, and subsequently entered the Lutheran Ministry. On the re-organization of the Preparatory Department some years ago, he was elected Principal, and continued in that position until the close of the last Collegiate year, when he resigned, partly by reason of failing health. For some time he has suffered from an affection of the throat, disabling him from public speaking; but no special apprehensions were felt by himself or friends until recently. Abont two weeks ago he took his bed, the disease making rapid progress and terminating in his death on Saturday last. His remains were interred in Ever-Green Cemetery, the funeral being attended by the faculty and students of the College and Seminary, and a number of citizens.

Prof. Ehrehart was a gentleman of great energy of character, the improvements in the neighborhood of Stevens Hall and along the extension of Carlisle street being mainly the result of his active agency.

We understand that in 1863 he effected an Insurance of $3,000 in the New England Life Insurance Company, through Wm. King, Esq., Agent. He had made three payments, amounting in the aggregate to about $440. His family will realize $3,000.

HOMICIDE.—On Wednesday last William Wills was shot and instantly killed by Martin Carbaugh. Both reside in the mountain, Franklin township, a short distance south of Newman's old tavern stand. It is represented that the parties have not been on good terms, and that Wills called at Carbaugh's on Wednesday, for a saw which the latter was repairing for the former, when they got into an altercation, during which Carbaugh seized a gun or pistol, and shot Wills in the breast, resulting in his instant death. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Carbaugh.

☞ SUFFERS from coughs, colds, bronchitis, croup, influenza or whooping cough, will find relief in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which has now been in use for nearly a century, and still maintains its long established reputation as the great remedy for all diseases of the throat, lungs and chest. 1t

YOUNG MEN desiring a practical business training will find Duff's Mercantile College the oldest, the most reliable, and permanent institution of the kind in the United States. Circulars can be had by addressing the principals—P. Duff & Sons, Pittsburg, Penn'a. Dec.2—2t

DELINQUENT SUBSCRIBERS.

The printed addresses which appear upon the margin of every issue of our paper, afford a good opportunity to delinquents to ascertain how their subscription accounts stand with the office. For instance, if the address reads: "John Jones, 11nov68," it means that the said John Jones owes on his paper for two years, up to November 11, 1870. We hope, therefore, that these gentle marginal reminders will serve to secure the payment of backstanding subscriptions, and, furthermore, that the remittances will be promptly made.

We renew the offer to receive $2 per annum on all back subscriptions that may be paid between this date and the 1st of January, 1871. Those who desire to save 50 cents a year, will find it to their own interest promptly to avail themselves of this offer.

PREPARATION FOR WINTER.

In this climate much of our labor during the autumnal months is spent in preparing for winter, and much of our winter comfort depends upon the manner in which we do it. In the first place there should be a systematic inspection of the buildings. The cellar should be protected both for the warmth generated within it, and for the additional warmth it gives to the house above. Cold floors are thus prevented. Then there is the barn. See that is banked up so the wind will not rake through it. There is much to be saved in hay in this matter of keeping your stock warm. Put double windows into your rooms in which you expect to keep fires during winter. If you have not got them already, go at once and order them. It is as easy saving wood as it is cutting it, while the comfort is vastly in favor of the windows. See that they fit close to the window frame. It is an air tight box you want between the windows.—Some persons object to them in our hearing because it is unhealthy living in so tight rooms. Decent people will always ventilate their rooms when necessary, and this can readily be done by the doors in a few minutes. Look out for good stoves. A farmer's cook stove should have a large fire box. Too many farmers buy stoves that are betteradapted to a city where people live poor and have only a little wood for which they pay a large price and are obliged to dole it out in the most careful manner. But most farmers make no such calculations and when there is a large family they need a large fire for warming and working purposes. When you buy an air-tight get the largest size. They are more economical, require less care and are more healthy than a small one, which burns up all the dust that collects on its surface and fills the room full of carbonic acid. Lay out generously for a wood pile so as to have a year's stock on hand. It is a good investment. We are to consult our individual comfort as well as that of our families in all the affairs of life. Next to having plenty of food is that of having an abundance of dry wood prepared. We have seen men haul up a jag of sapling trees once a week all summer to keep their fires going. We don't know whether to feel ashamed of such men or to pity them. Green wood soon destroys stoves, while the loss of time expended in preparing wood in summer is very great. We suppose no reader of our paper is guilty of such habits as these and we only allude to it to encourage the prompt man to be always so. See that your grape vines are laid down and covered up. There is no cultivated grape in this State worth having that will stand our winters with any certainty unless protected. We have met with men who were foolish enough to let them go one winter and because they succeeded once they have let them go the next winter, only to have them destroyed.

As the long winter evenings come, may we enjoy them in a way that none but farmers can enjoy. It is the time for reading, for social intercourse with our neighbors and friends and for the ripe enjoyment of the fruits of our toil during the summer.—Maine Farmer.

MR. DUTTON, of Ohio, a mighty coon hunter, returning from an unsuccessful chase, finished it in his dreams by catching the coon and dashing it against a tree. His wife's scream waked him, and he found he had enacted the scene with the baby, which was killed.

THIS UNEQUALLED BOOK concerns the property, business, individual rights, and social privileges of every one, and affords a fund of legal knowledge that to many will make it worth 10 times its weight in gold. The simplicity of its instructions, the comprehensiveness of its subject, the accuracy of its details, the facilities afforded in its perfect arrangement, and the conciseness and the attractiveness of its style, as well as its cheapness, make it the most desirable of all legal hand-books. No effort or expense has been spared in adapting it thoroughly to the times, and affording in it the most recent and useful information.

IT CONTAINS THE

Constitution of the United States, With Amendments;
General Bankrupt Laws, With Amendments;
Pension Laws, With Necessary Forms;

"UNQUESTIONABLY THE BEST SUSTAINED WORK OF THE KIND IN THE WORLD."

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

No more delightful travels are printed in the English language than appear perpetually in Harper's Magazine. They are read with equal interest and satisfaction by boys of every grade from eighteen to eighty. Its scientific papers, while sufficiently profound to demand the attention of the learned, are yet admirably adapted to the popular understanding, and designed as much to diffuse correct information concerning current scientific discovery as it could be if it was the organ of the "Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge." The great design of Harper's is to give correct information and rational amusement to the great masses of the people. There are few intelligent American families in which Harper's Magazine would not be an appreciated and highly-welcome guest. There is no monthly Magazine in the world in which a diligent reading family can be afforded so much reading. Many Magazines are accumulated—Harper's is distilled. There is not a Magazine that is printed which shows more intelligent pains expended on its articles and mechanical execution. There is not a cheaper Magazine published.—The Times. There is not, confessedly, a more popular Magazine in the world.—New England Homestead.

It is one of the wonders of journalism—the editorial management of Harper's.—The Nation, N. Y.

SPLENDIDLY ILLUSTRATED.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Model Newspaper of our country. Complete in all the departments of an American Family Paper, Harper's Weekly has earned for itself a right to its title, "A Journal of Civilization."—New York Evening Post.

The best publication of its class in America, and so far ahead of all other weekly journals as not to permit of any comparison between it and any of their number. Its columns contain the finest collections of reading matter that are printed. * * * Its illustrations are numerous and beautiful, being furnished by the chief artists of the country.—Boston Traveler.

Harper's Weekly is the best and most interesting illustrated newspaper. Nor does its value depend on its illustrations alone. Its reading matter is of a high order of literary merit—varied, instructive, entertaining, and unexceptionable.—N. Y. Sun.

"A REPOSITORY OF FASHION, PLEASURE, AND INSTRUCTION."

HARPER'S BAZAR.

A supplement containing numerous full-sized patterns of useful articles accompanies the paper every fortnight.

Harper's Bazar contains 16 folio pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superfine calendered paper, and is published weekly.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

Harper's Bazar contains fashion plates, pictures, patterns, etc., a variety of matter of especial use and interest to the family; articles on health, dress, and housekeeping in all the branches; an editorial matter is specially adapted to the circle it is intended to interest and instruct; and it has, besides, good stories and literary matter of merit. It is not surprising that the journal, with such features, has achieved in a short time as large a circulation as it has, for something of its kind was desired in thousands of families, and its publishers have filled the demand. The young lady who buys a single number of Harper's Bazar is made a subscriber for life.—New York Evening Post.

The Bazar is excellent. Like all the periodicals which the Harpers publish, it is almost ideally well edited, and the class of readers for whom it is intended—the mothers and daughters in average families—can not but profit by its good sense and good taste, which, we have no doubt, are today making very many homes happier than they may have been before the women began taking lessons in personal and household and social management from this good-natured mentor.—The Nation, N. Y.

DODGE'S PATENT REAPER AND MOWER AND SELF RAKER.

THIS machine has met with the most complete success. In every section where it has been introduced, it has taken precedence over those machines which have heretofore ranked as first-class. It is a perfect Self-Raker and a superior Mower.

A careful examination will convince any one of its superior merits over all others, in simplicity, strength and durability. As a Self-raking Reaper it has no equal to our knowledge.

The Dodge rake is attached to no other machine in the United States, except to this machine.—Built by the DODGE & STEVENSON Manufacturing Co., Auburn, New York.

READ THE NOTICE OF THE COMPANY TO OUR AGENTS:

Having been informed that certain manufacturers in Ohio and elsewhere are building Reapers, with DODGE'S SELF-RAKE attached, we ask you to furnish us the names of all persons vending or purchasing such machines, as we have never licensed any person or persons to manufacture said SELF-RAKE, or any part thereof, and will prosecute to the full extent of the law all persons manufacturing, selling or using said self-rake except of our own manufacture.

JOHN DODGE, President.

We have that confidence in this machine that we are willing to warrant any machine sent out by it with any other machine they may wish, and keep the one that gives the most satisfaction.

Farmers wanting Droppers attached can be accommodated.

For the benefit of those wanting machines we should refer them to a few of those to whom we have sold, viz:

Henry Culp	Peter Mackley,
John B. Leas,	Wm. Furney,
John D. Newman,	Hiram Penrose,
George F. Minter,	John Deardorff,
Abraham Waybright,	Ephraim Lady,
David Plank,	Jonathan Wisler,
John Hockersmith,	James Mickley,
Peter Ketchman,	Daniel Settle,
Henry Shriver,	John Bender,
Christian Shriver,	John Ecker,
Ross Hunter,	Henry King,
John Lower,	Andrew Walkert,
John D. Boyer,	J. J. Kerr,
George Philips.

On Hand a few Second Hand Reapers.

Also, WOOD'S SOUTH HAY RAKERS, of different make, amongst which is the Grandt Rake. Few PLOUGHS of different kinds; Thresher and Separator. This Machine is the oldest one sold in the county. HARRISBURG FANNS NILLS, and farm implements generally.

Persons wishing to examine machines will find them at the warehouse of JOHNNY WIBLE & Son, Gettysburg, or at the residence of the subscriber, 2 miles from Gettysburg, on the Harrisburg road.

EXTRAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND in case of breakage. Persons wanting Circulars will address the subscriber, Gettysburg, Pa.
